

JOIN OUR TEAM!

Job Description: Carbon Project Manager

Reference: Sep07Carbon

Reports to: Carbon Solutions Director

Location: Paris central (75011)

Salary: Attractive compensation package based on qualifications

To support its development, BeCitizen is currently expanding its team in Paris.

Responsibilities

You will work directly with the Carbon Solutions Director and have the responsibility for a variety of projects that tackle areas such as climate change, renewable energy, emissions trading, CDM, international and local policies, emerging climate change mitigation initiatives. Main tasks include:

- Client Engagements: be in charge of project management and deliverable quality, conduct client-driven research and analysis; assess strategic options for our clients according to predefined requirements, participate in evaluation, mitigation and project development, manage junior staff when required.
- Business Development: represent BeCitizen at conferences and international exhibitions, prepare and oversee technical and commercial proposals, contribute to develop BeCitizen's network, identify industrial targets and take part in developing relevant business models and plans.
- Strategic watch: ongoing analysis of development and implementation of the Kyoto and post-Kyoto framework, local and regional emissions trading systems, policies, preparation of strategic reports.

Qualifications and experience

- Graduate degree in natural resources, energy, economics, international law
- Minimum proven 2-year experience in one of the following fields :
 - CDM/JI projects origination and/or development
 - Carbon credit trading, carbon finance
 - Carbon strategies, carbon assessment
- Languages: English and French (Required), Spanish is an advantage

Skills

- Advanced knowledge of Microsoft Office (specially Excel and Power Point) is required
- Consulting expertise and team work oriented
- Flexible and open-minded
- Dynamic and entrepreneurial

Closing date for applications: 21st December 2007

If you wish to apply for this position, please send your CV and cover letter at pf@becitizen.com.

Founded in 2000, BeCitizen is a strategy consulting firm which delivers to its client's radically innovative turnkey solutions that create new opportunities for growth by restoring the environment and the climate. BeCitizen is a team of 20 people based in Paris and engaged in projects in over 15 countries (Europe, North America, Africa and Middle East).

As a driving force behind the Positive Economy™, BeCitizen:

- Designs solutions for tomorrow's economy sector by sector, in partnership with its clients and network of scientific and technical experts, through original R&D programmes;
- Delivers for its client's innovative products and business models that create value in the key sectors of energy, transport, building and construction, and agriculture;
- Promotes the Positive Economy™ principles to a wide audience including private and public economic actors, academic and scientific institutions and research bodies, national and local political decision makers, international organizations, financial investors, business think tanks and specialized media.

Our services:

1. Strategic advisory: Positive Economy Check-Up™ and strategic recommendations, Identification of new business models
2. Innovative start-up mainstreaming: Strategic planning, market development, financial structuring and fundraising*
3. Investment advice : Identification of high-potential investment projects, creation of innovative investment funds and financial products*
4. Carbon Solutions: carbon risk management, Clean Development Mechanisms, carbon trading

Carbon Solutions:

We advise private and public entities on their carbon strategy and assist them in managing their carbon assets / liabilities:

Our services:

1. We advise industrial companies in developed countries on their carbon strategy: opportunity assessment and carbon risk management, carbon assets sourcing
2. We assist project owners in developing countries: project origination, development and financing* of projects in the Kyoto framework (Clean Development Mechanisms/CDM) & Joint Implementation/JI) or for the voluntary market (offsetting, carbon neutrality).
3. Carbon trading and transaction facilitation*

 in partnership with our strategic financial partner*